Loggers Meet Whitman Outfit In Grid Tilt

Visitors Highly Rated Despite Early Season Losses by Close Scores

During the past week Coach Roy Sandberg has been putting the finishing touches on his Logger squad preparatory to the Homecoming game with "Nig" Borleske's Whitman Missionaries in the Stadium, Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Despite the fact that the Missionary eleven dropped a close decision to Pacific, 14 to 12 recently, they will offer the league leading Puget Sound gridsters a hard battle. Whitman recently was defeated by the Idaho Vandals, a coast conference outfit, 60 to 0 score, lost to Pacific and barely nosed out Linfield, 7-6. Last year the CPS squad captured a 7-6 verdict.

Following this contest the Loggers will have to face the College of Idaho and Pacific and both are in the running for the title, meaning that the Sandberg-men will have a hard battle to retain their laurels.

Whitman in Good Shape

Coach Borleske of Whitman will have his squad in A-1 condition for the Lumberjacks, including Captain Gallord Nelson, who has been on the injured list. Much is to be feared of "Hoot" Gibson, 145-pound slippery, triple-threat quarterback and one of the most elusive backs in the conference. Another threat is Bob Dietz, flashy halfback. Both these backs will demand plenty of watching by the Loggers.

Three former Tacoma high grid stars are on the Missionary lineup, Gordon Dosskey and Jim Doran, regular fullback and guard respectively. The other is Bill Alsip, an end. All are from Lincoln high.

In the Logger camp Coach Sandberg will endeavor to have the entire squad in tip-top shape against Whitman. Judy Davidson will be ready for the fray after an injury sustained in the Albany fracas three weeks ago.

Frosh To Give Farce Production in Chapel

One-act Play Has Two Complete Casts

The Dramatic department is sponsoring a one-act farce to be put on by freshmen. Two casts are being chosen from the freshman speech classes by the upper division students. The better of the two casts will present the farce, "The Women-Folks," by John Kirkpatrick, in chapel Wednesday, November 15. Both groups will give the play in various churches and organizations.

Although one cast has not yet been fully chosen, the first cast is made up of the following:

Mrs. Crapser Passes

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Hoag Crapser will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Tuell Funeral Home chapel. The services will be directed by Dr. Edward H. Todd. The body will be cremated.

Mrs. Crapser, who had been ill for many months, died Friday morning at her home 711 North L street. She was 77 years old. Her daughter, Miss Anna H. Crapser, professor of French at the College of Puget Sound, is the only surviving relative. She served in the Iowa public schools as a teacher for many years, retiring at the age of 67. A native of Iowa, she came to Tacoma 10 years ago to make her home. She had many friends among the faculty members and students of the college.

At chapel service Friday morning students and faculty voted to extend their sympathy as a group to Miss Crapser in her bereavement.

German Student Life Is Colorful

Relationship to Hitler's Movement Shown

Dr. Warren E. Tomlinson, German professor, presented his ideas of German university students and the part they play in the present Hitler movement in chapel, Monday.

"The students of Germany are really the backbone of the Hitler movement, for the reason that they have a problematic philosophy of life, and are inspired only by some hero leader.

"Unemployment has been one of the great problems of Germany for a greater time than anywhere else—10 to 12 years as a fact. Therefore, a student faced with such a future naturally joins in with a vigorous leader, as is Hitler. Also, to be student in Germany is an honored profession, and often someone may be introduced as student so-and-so.

Prof. Walter A. Eichinger, instructor in pipe organ of the Conservatory of Music, played three numbers for chapel Wednesday: "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" by Bach; "Adagio-Symphony VI" by Widor, and "Sunshine Toccata" by Swinnen.

Mrs. Lois Beil Sandall, introduced in chapel Friday by Miss Martha Pearl Jones of the speech department, gave a reading entitled "The Angelus." Mrs. Sandall is a graduate of CPS and of the Emerson College of Oratory

Physics Department Purchases Equipment

Although the physics department has little money allotted to it this year it has purchased several new pieces of equipment. The largest is a mercury diffusion pump which will enable physic students to obtain a high vacuum.

A set of Strobilite Ultra-violet color paints has also been added. These paints which show a brilliant color when exposed to ultra-violet rays are not distinguishable in ordinary lighting. The colors are applied in the same manner as paint and are used for unusual color effects on the stage and also for decorations, which are to be used in the dark.

Playcrafters Give Mystery Drama, 'Black Flamingo'

First Fall Production To Be Presented Friday Evening For Homecoming Celebration

"The strongest cast I've ever had," is Miss Martha Pearl Jones' description of the group which is presenting "The Black Flamingo" next Friday, November 3, as part of the Homecoming celebration. At 8 p. m. the curtain will rise upon the drama filled with humor, mystery, thrills and romance.

Count Dominates

Dominating the play is the baffling figure of Count Cagliostro. Whether he is a rogue or hero, charlatan or mesmerist is difficult to judge until the action is complete. Humor is cleverly handled by Kenneth Powers as Popo who woos Marian Sherman, the serving maid, because of his great desire for—roast pig.

A lonely old castle transformed into an inn makes a fitting meeting place for nobility, thieves, maddened peasants and lovers.

College Bureau Places 20 Alumni

Teachers Receive Positions
Through Department of Education

Twenty CPS graduates have received teaching positions through the placement activities of the Department of Education. The following members of the Class of '33 were placed: Russell Anderson, a special student, is principal of the Alderton grade school; Delwin Jones, graduate of the Conservatory of Music, is teaching music at Napavine high school; Edna Sievers Sylvester is teaching English and dramatics at Langley high school and Fred Walter is at the junior high school at Midland.

From the Class of '32 Harry Benson, who taught last year at Morton, was placed at Boistfort high school this year; Hazel Betchart is teaching home economics at Boistfort; Margaret Dudley is teaching at Federal Way school on the Tacoma-Seattle highway; Thelma Gander was placed in the commercial department at Cle Elum high school; Dorothy Schonborn, who took graduate work at U. of W. last year, is teaching home economics at Sequim high school. Charles Guilford is teaching mathematics, vocational civics and physics at Prosser. He took graduate work at CPS last year.

Mary Wescott '31, was placed in the English and music department at Ocosta, Washington. Fred Hardin '30, who was working for his master's degree at W.S.C. last year, is teaching manual training at Sunnyside high school. Esther Rarey '28, is a teacher of home economics and chemistry at Moxee City. Alfred Samuelson '27 is at Cle Elum.

Homecoming Rules

Signs

House decorations for homecoming must be up—complete—Friday night and all day Saturday, November 4. They will be judged Saturday between 8 and 9 p. m. A representative of the group must be present at this time to interview judges, if necessary. Decisions will be based on effectiveness and originality.

Floats

Float entries in the noise parade must be ready by 11 a. m. Saturday and be at the campus. They must be numbered in a prominent place. Decisions will be based on noise and presentation.

These competitions are open to any organized group on the campus. If any groups desiring to enter floats have not been assigned a number they should see the homecoming committee.

Debaters Hold First Turnout

Pi Kappa Delta Announces
Question of Year

With 25 students turning out for the first debate meeting of the year, the CPS forensic program was opened Tuesday. This year's debate question is, "resolved: that the powers of the President of the United States should be substantially increased as a settled policy."

15 New Members

In addition to eight members of last year's varsity and two members of last year's freshman squad, 15 new debaters answered the call. Under direction of Prof. Charles T. Battin, coach, the group was divided into sections. The work of formulating a bibliography and listing negative and affirmative points was divided, giving each person a specific assignment. Future meetings will be held at noon, either on Tuesday or Thursday at the convenience of the students.

A tournament will be held at Linfield college, McMinnville, Oregon in the first week in February, to which will be sent two women's and two men's teams, and participants in extemporaneous speaking and oratory.

Attend National Meet

The annual Pi Kappa Delta convention will be held in Lexington, Kentucky, in April of next year. Plans are being made to send two teams to this meet.

Methodist Students Offered New Loan

That small loans may be made to Methodist students enrolled in the College of Puget Sound through a loan fund of the Methodist Episcopal church was announced by Charles A. Robbins, bursar, in chapel Wednesday. The fund is provided by the Board of Education of the church for the benefit of Methodist students.

All who are interested in acquiring such a loan are requested to see Mr. Robbins at some time during this week. It is very important that the matter be attended to at this time if one expects to make application for such a loan.

Bonfire To Open Annual Program For Homecoming

Rapid Chain of Events Follows
Burning of Beanies in Traditional Affair

Homecoming, one of the most important events on the school calendar, will officially get under way Friday at 7 p. m., when the traditional Homecoming bonfire will be lighted. Not only are the freshmen expected to be out in full force to burn their green beanies, but the upper-classmen and the alumni are especially invited to take part in the festivities.

Frosh To Arrange Fire

The Freshman class is expected to start gathering the material for the huge bonfire early this week. Immediately following the fire, the college playcrafters will present "The Black Flamingo," a mystery play, in Jones hall at 8 o'clock.

All the fraternities and sororities on the campus will sponsor noise floats in the Homecoming parade, which is slated to start at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. This parade, which will advertise the game with Whitman to be played at 2 p. m., will start at school under direction of the pep department and proceed through the downtown and outlying business districts.

Winner To Get Prize

To the fraternity or sorority having the noisiest float and the one which advertises the game most effectively, a prize will be given. Special entertainment between the halves of the game will be offered by the pledges of the Delta Pi Omicron and the Delta Kappa Phi fraternities.

Saturday evening the annual alumni banquet will be held in the dining room of the Masonic temple, starting at 6 p. m. The climax of the two day Homecoming will be the dance Saturday evening, in the gymnasium. The dance will last from 9 to 12 p. m., with the alumni as the guests of honor.

All fraternities and sororities will have their respective houses and rooms specially decorated. A prize will be given to the one having the best decorations.

Fight Song Contest Closes Wednesday

Words, Music Will Be Judged
By Student Body

An opportunity in practical experience for all aspiring Irving Berlins is offered in the request for a Puget Sound fight song. The contest is open to every one in college, students or faculty members. Wednesday is the closing date for all entries and songs may be handed to Arthur Linn in the Trail office. Either words or music or both may be written.

A fight song will not replace the Alma Mater, but will be used for football games and pep rallies where the Alma Mater is less appropriate. The songs handed in will be sung and played in chapel Friday, at which time the student body will make its choice. Members of the fight song committee are: Arthur Linn (chairman), Ray Chard, Morris Summers and Prof. John Paul Bennett.

Delta Kapps Are Hosts at Dance

Roof Garden Is Scene of Fraternity Party

The roof garden of the Masonic temple was the scene of a fraternity dance for which men of Delta Kappa Phi were hosts Saturday evening, October 28. Frank Heuston was in charge of the affair with Walter Brown and Ray Wall as committee members.

The hall was decorated with the fraternity colors of black, green, and gold, with the programs patterned after the fraternity scrap book. Roy Norman's orchestra furnished the music.

Sponsors

Sponsors of the dance included Dr. and Mrs. Warren E. Tomlinson, Prof. John I. Chickanzeff and Miss Pearl Pangborn.

Guests from other fraternities attending were Jack Fewell, Seth Innis, Leonard Moline and Al Winterhouse.

Guests include Dorothea Anderson, Dorothy Best, Erma Bonney, Mary Borchert, Rose Brooks, Betty Brumbaugh, Doris Clark, Eleanor Emmins, Iris Fear, Evelyn Frank, Madeline Grubs, Dorothy Harris, Maxine Hartl, Opal Haskins, Grace Hering, Annalois Hertzberg, Margaret Janes, Vera Kirby, Catherine Koch, Ann Kruger, Dora Langton, Margaret Martin, Thelma Melsnes, Shirley Morris, Dorothy Nadeau, Jeanette Nelson, Anabell Norton, Jessamine Pugh, Jane Ramsby, Morile Sather, Margaret Scott, Dorothy Sharp, Marian Sherman, Lucy Mae Spencer, Elizabeth Stewart, Jennie Teevan, Eloise Wood.

Fraternity Men

Mrs. Drewry Leads YWCA Song Fest

Invitations Are Given For Hallowe'en Party

Mrs. Raymond G. Drewry led the YWCA members in a song fest at their last meeting, October 24. Miss Lois Twaddle was chairman.

The members were divided into four groups and songs included rounds and popular pieces. The leaders of the groups were Misses Virginia Gardner, Ellen Jorgenson, Frances Spencer and Eloise Tuell, with Miss Annabel Biggle accompanying.

Invitations to a Hallowe'en party, to be held October 31, were given to all the members.

Frosh Beanies Are Universally Used To Designate Class

By Mary Ann Caughran

Green is the color of tender youth, the freshness of spring, the exuberance of gambling lambs. S'matter, Frosh, ashamed of your class? Maybe the green hue of the hat so close to the face tends to bring out too much yellow in the complexion.

There's a certain self-assurance in the jade mein of the upperclassmen that's much to be desired, but if the mighty ones can't even force a man to wear a beanie I'd not want to be classed as one of them. Let young strength take up the torch that falls from the withered hand of age!

Freshmen To the Front

Wear your beanie and show them, if you can, that, however green and innocent they may appear, the freshmen are going to run this school the way it ought to be run.

At Harvard, Frederic Lane, '37, tells us, the freshmen are segregated into one district called "the yard" where they live. They are not allowed to join a fraternity or a club until they have finished their first year. At Oberlin, the freshmen wear crimson and gold hats everywhere until November. Then, if their prowess is such, they may discard them. At the University of Santa Clara in California, so Frank Ruffo, '36, says, the freshmen usually wear red and white hats.

Tried by Law

Cosmopolitan Charlie Curran, '35, tells us that at Colorado U if frosh don't wear their green hats they are taken before the students in the law school and tried, while at Notre Dame and University of Wichita, freshmen are just another class and of no importance at all. At Nebraska Wesleyan, the upperclassmen are much like those here so the frosh did as they pleased while Tom Kendall, '36, was there. At Ellensburg Normal, according to Earl Ingham, '35, frosh wear hats during Freshman Week only, but they wear them. At Belingham paddling is more in order than green hats, reports Florence Clark, '36.

Fred Renschler and Franklin Walbridge '33 are working for the Shell Oil Company and Standard Oil Company, respectively, in Tacoma.

Faculty Speak At WEA Meeting

Six CPS Instructors Discuss Educational Problems

The College of Puget Sound was well represented at the meeting of the Washington Education association last Thursday and Friday at Stadium high and Jason Lee intermediate schools by six instructors, who spoke in section meetings.

Dean Raymond G. Drewry, chairman of the Department of Higher Education, spoke in the English section on "Remedial Reading." In the mathematics section, Dr. Arthur W. Martin talked on "The Correlation of Secondary School Mathematics with College Mathematics."

Prof. Battin at Meeting

Prof. Charles T. Battin discussed "Economic Conditions and Future School Prospects" before the senior high school unit of the meeting. "A Lantern Revue of Heredity" was given by Prof. James R. Slater, in the biology section. Dean Lyle Ford Drushel discussed "Our Jobs as Girls' Advisers," in the girls' adviser section.

Prof. Joseph P. Harris of the Department of Practical Science of the University of Washington spoke on "The Nature of Social Science Courses in the American College in the New Era" before the Department of Higher Education. After the address, Dr. Frank G. Williston led a discussion on the topic.

Have Luncheon

Thursday noon a luncheon was held at the Bonneville hotel honoring CPS alumni attending the WEA meetings. "I-remember-when" was the theme of the informal program.

Sororities Attend Coed Frolic Affairs

Regular Meetings Give Way To Party

Kappa Sigma Theta, Sigma Lambda Chi, and Alpha Beta Upsilon sororities held short business meetings Wednesday afternoon. The meetings were adjourned early so that the sorority members could attend the Coed Frolic, the party given by the Women's Federation.

The Alpha Delta Gamma group met after the Coed Frolic for a pot-luck supper for its members. The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the decorations, and the favors were balloons cleverly fashioned into cats. The program which followed, consisting of stunts, a mock style show, and a ghost skit, was presented by the pledges. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing bridge.

Omicron Pledges Elect Officers

Pledges of Delta Pi Omicron elected the following officers Wednesday evening: Gary Lewis, president; Robert Vandenberg, vice president; Bud Kimball, secretary-treasurer and Max Piersol, guard.

The fraternity announces the pledging of Jack Morlock, a graduate of Stadium.

Wilma Zimmerman is teaching and coaching debate in the Summer high school.

SEASONS SCENES

Flash! Big cotton hankies are in style this year. They're bigger and better than ever.

Plaid and solid-color skirts are being made this season with wide yokes. Many pleats make the skirt full all the way around.

Among the many styles of purses carried on the Campus, are cloth purses featuring knitted and figured wools.

Cotton is favored as glove material this winter. It looks dressy and it is inexpensive.

Women, do you know that it's old-fashioned to have expensive wardrobes? Everybody is crazy about the clothes you can make at home for almost nothing.

Ruffles and bows are gaining popularity as trimming for evening gowns and wraps. Sometimes they practically make the costume.

High nick-lines are back in style for winter wear. Pleats, tucks and gathers, give individuality and smartness to the plain necks or yokes.

Academy of Science Hears Clay Lecture

"Common and Uncommon Clays," a lecture on clay products, including the story of pottery making, will be delivered by Dr. Hewitt Wilson at the meeting of the Puget Sound Academy of Science Wednesday evening November 1 at 7:30 p. m. in the science lecture room of Leonard Howarth hall.

Dr. Wilson is head of the Ceramics department of the College of Mines at the University of Washington. His lecture will be illustrated with many examples of clay products including pottery and tile.

Kappa Phi Has Meeting

Kappa Phi women of the College of Puget Sound met Monday night in the home of Mrs. A. G. Harrelson, group adviser. At that time an interesting report from the chapter delegates to the regional convention in Berkeley was presented. This convention was held last June and was attended by representatives from schools in the western states.

Women Sponsor Second Frolic

Four Score Attend Annual Affair

The Coed Frolic, held Wednesday afternoon, was attended by four score women of the College of Puget Sound. The Women's Federation sponsored the affair, which was held in the gymnasium from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. All women of the school were invited and the primary purpose was to foster a comradely spirit and friendship among the coeds of CPS. Miss Betty Hoyt was general chairman and was assisted by a number of the federation members.

Miss Davis Plans Numbers

An interesting program was planned by Miss Gertrude Davis, and included games and dancing. Misses Betsy Chase and Maurita Shank of Stadium high school did a tap dance on roller skates. Misses Jane Ramsby, Mary Elizabeth Tuck, Edith Coffman and Vivian Larsen were committee assistants.

Miss Sally Lawson made arrangements for an orchestra to furnish the music for the afternoon assisted by Misses Lois Evanson and Helen Roberts. Refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Gertrude Ogden, aided by Misses Kathryn St. Clair, Marian Winge, Ina Mae Lee and Pauline Marush. The decorations, in Hallowe'en motif, were planned by Miss Gladys Neff. She was assisted by Misses Marianna Likins, Jean Beers, Eunice Perkins and Muriel Beerbohm. Publicity was taken care of by Misses Joy Havard and Mary Louise Wortman.

Is Second Frolic

The organizations included in the federation and their presidents are: YWCA., Miss Miriam Weigle; Women's Athletic association, Miss Thelma Melsnes; Spurs, Miss Ruth Helen Evans; Otlah, Miss Marian Sherman. Miss Thelma Melsnes is the federation president. The frolic was the second of its kind to be held at the college, the first, attended by more than 100 women, was held last spring.

Frosh Coeds Lead In Hockey League

Sophs Take Second Place After Week of Play

With two victories and no defeats to their credit, the freshmen team holds the top place in the hockey tournament. The sophs hold down second place with one win and one defeat. The freshmen second team is third with no wins and two defeats. The junior-senior squad has not played as yet.

Sophs Win First Game

The interclass tourney started last Tuesday with the sophomore and freshmen second stringers. The second year women overcame the considerably weaker freshmen by a 5 to 1 score. Freddie Gardner, sophomore forward, shot three goals for her team. Frances Gius made the only freshman tally. Anabell Norton was chosen captain for the sophomore squad.

On Wednesday, in an exciting fast-moving game, the freshmen first string defeated the sophs 2 to 1. Jane Ramsby and Margaret Boen went through the sophomore defense for the freshmen scores. Play in the second half was much more exciting, as the sophomores threatened the freshmen goal many times. Annabel Biggle, soph forward, shot the ball across the freshmen goal line for the only score of the team. The game ended with the sophomores in scoring position again. Martha Buckley was elected the freshman first team captain.

Frosh Firsts Win From Seconds

In a poorly played game Thursday, the freshmen first stringers defeated the second stringers, 4 to 0. Both teams passed poorly and missed several attempts to score. The play was entirely in the second team's territory. Jane Ramsby played well, scoring three of the four goals. Evelyn Taylor, captain of the second stringers and Dorothy Floydstead played best of the seconds.

Today at noon the junior-senior team will tackle the frosh second stringers. Games postponed Monday and Friday of last week will be played sometime this week. All players are asked to watch the bulletin board for further announcement.

The Peter Pugets, cellar champs of the circuit whipped the leading Sigma Zeta Epsilon squad by a 10 to 7 score in the final intramural indoor baseball game of the season played last Thursday. The Zetes were undefeated until Thursday's contest while the win was the first in six starts for the independents. Harold Tollefson was the outstanding performer for the winners, his batting being the deciding factor in the victory. Batteries, Peter Pugets: Kuromoto and Brandt; Zetes: Bates and Moline.

Delta Kappa Phi and Sigma Mu Chi ended the season in a tie for second place as the result of the Mu Chi's win over the Delta Kapps on Tuesday by a 9 to 4 count. The Mu Chis had their batting eyes open and as a result slammed the offerings of Williams almost at will. Batteries, Mu Chis: Burkland, Innis and Manley; Delta Kapps: Williams and Wall.

Sandy will have Jimmy Ennis, the classiest open-field runner in the conference at left half; Jack Kimball at right half; either Judy Davidson or Jess Brooks at full and Burdette Sterling at quarter.

Any time during the contest Coach Sandberg can call on Ed Havel, Ralph Dungan, George Nace, Howard Hass in the backfield and Hawkins, Millikan, Dawkins, Grant, Jezek, Nelson, Stoffel and Piper in the line.

By Otto Smith and Howie Clifford

Seattle has offered various excuses for the result of the game last week; such as lack of reserves, the team was off form, it was their one bad day, and they even went so far as to say that the game was just a scrimmage and that the result did not make any difference, anyway.

Well, as far as we are concerned we would just like to say that we believe that the University was playing its regular brand of ball and that they took the game very seriously. They came over here with the idea of making up for the bad showing against Oregon, but after the game it was clearly evident that the Loggers are far better than most people believe.

Continuing further we noticed that over the radio the other night it was stated that the Huskies are a new team after the Oregon game, that they have the old fighting spirit. Well, if that is the case the Loggers should be further complimented. In the same broadcast nothing was mentioned of the Logger-Husky affair. Are they afraid of the big bad Loggers? Or are they just ashamed?

Picking a winner for the Homecoming game is a difficult job but in view of previous showings we'll string with Puget Sound, and if everybody plays his best game, it will be a thirteen point margin. Although we realize the possibility of Whitman upsetting the dope bucket.

That Washington game is still ringing in our ears and all we can hear is Sprenger and Ennis. They were at top form against the Huskies, but did you see Olsen and Slatter, Logger tackles, busting up the Huskies interference so that Lindquist and Carlson could stop the ball carrier? Did you see how nearly perfect Sterling called the plays? That pass of Dett's to Carlson was a pip. Did you notice the Logger captain, Park Gagnon, floating on defense but always plugging the center of the line when needed? Kimball played a swell game in the backfield, as did Jess Brooks. All the boys deserve credit for that game and don't get the idea that there are any swelled heads on the squad. Sandy never lets his boys get that way, for it would be too costly with Whitman, College of Idaho, and Pacific ahead. These are the games. that really count.

GRID GLIMPSES

Harvey Hawkins

The game with the University of Washington brought out a new star for the Loggers. That Logger star is none other than Harvey Hawkins, stellar guard on the CPS grid squad in his freshman year. Hawkins tips the beam at a mere 195 and reaches the height of 6 feet 1 1/2 inches so he is not to be considered in the midget class.

Harvey hails from Longview high school where he played guard, tackle and end on the school's football team. He was also Longview's star shot putter and was on the relay team. In his senior year he was elected captain of the football squad.

Hawkins was president of the Hi-Y and also sergeant-at-arms of the senior class.

And now for our little joke—besides being good looking and a real football star Harvey made the honor roll at Longview there-by proving to be the exception to that old adage that football players are dumb.

Judy

Judy Davidson, the other fullback, is fully recovered from injuries and will see lots of action the rest of the season. Davidson is the best punter on the squad and is playing his last year for CPS.

Volleyball Next Mural Activity

Volleyball, which is the next sport on the men's intramural program, will start next week, according to Lou Grant and intramural manager, Howard Clifford. This is due to the fact that the majority of teams in the indoor baseball league voted against two rounds of play.

Any team wishing to secure a practice period for Tuesday and Thursday of this week should get in touch immediately with Grant or Clifford to arrange for such.

Two leagues are being planned to give more men a chance to take part in the sports program. The schedule for the season will be announced in next week's issue of the Trail.

Hoopsters Finish Week of Practice

With a week's intensive practice completed, CPS hoopsters are now planning to enter the city league to obtain experience in actual competition before the conference season begins.

Present indications, based on showing in scrimmages of new members are that the regulars will have a struggle to retain their positions on the team.

Louis Grant, assistant coach, has charge of the turnouts until the end of the football season, when Coach Sandberg will assume charge. Casaba artists who are on the football squad will also join the hoopsters then.

Logger Attack Wins, 4-0 Score

Mud Thwarts Backfield in Viking Battle

Their running attack checked by a boggy field, CPS gridsters squeezed a narrow 4-0 victory from an unwilling Viking team at Bellingham Saturday afternoon. The four points were the result of two safeties scored against the Teachers, one in the second period and one in the fourth.

The Logger hopes were slightly chilled in the second quarter when Sinco, Normal halfback, skidded into the open and headed for scoring territory. Roy "Adam" Carlson saved the day however, when, after a gruelling 80 yard chase he sunk Sinco on the Logger two-yard line.

The first break of the game came when the Vikings were penalized fifteen yards for holding, setting them back to their ten-yard stripe. One the next play the Logger forward wall broke through to block the attempted kick and downed the Normal ball carrier behind his goal line for a safety.

The final score came in the fourth quarter when Jack "Pop" Slatter "popped" out of the mud to deflect an attempted Bellingham pass back over their own goal line.

The combination of rain and mud gave the pigskin a slippery coating that caused numerous fumbles. The Loggers, though, held on to the ball with much better success than their Northern rivals. Under the existing conditions neither team was able to get going with its running attack for long and kicking was resorted to throughout the game.

Welcome Alumni!

Friday and Saturday of this week is the time set aside for the annual Homecoming celebration when the graduates of Puget Sound will return to their "father's table" to partake of the "fatted calf" prepared by the present members of the college family. No effort is being spared by the committee in charge to make the grown up members of the family feel at home and proud of the fact that they are members of our family circle.

Although their return is several days in the future, the Trail takes this opportunity to extend a welcome hand to Puget Sound's growing body of alumni. We trust that the graduates will be made to feel at home and will depart knowing that the "home folks" are wishing them success in their every effort. AGAIN WE SAY, "A HEARTY WELCOME, ALUMNI OF THE COLLEGE OF THE PUGET SOUND." A. L.

Minority Rule

According to the latest enrolment figures there are 98 juniors attending the College of Puget Sound. It is evident that this figure was not arrived at by counting those that attend the class meetings. At a recent meeting at which several important positions were to be filled between 15 and 20 juniors were in attendance. In other words only 16 per cent of the class thought it important enough to cast a ballot for those who are to guide the destinies of that group.

It is possible that many failed to attend due to the fact that they knew nothing about the meeting or to absence from school. However, the fact remains that the proper attitude is not being shown toward class meetings. The fact that many stay away because they feel that it is of no avail to attend accounts for many officers being "railroaded" into their positions. In the future let's make it a point to attend class meetings so that our officers may be truly representative of the class. Certainly we can bat better than .167. A. L.

Street Car Fares

On glancing over the campus of the College of Puget Sound one would think that every student came to school in an automobile of some kind. However, there are many who take the street car and many who walk either because they live close to the College or because they cannot afford to ride the street cars. It is with reference to the latter group that this editorial is written. Undoubtedly many students find it impossible to get money to pay street car fares twice a day and five days a week at the present rate and many that do pay the fare do so by cutting down or eliminating entirely, other necessary expenditures.

The students of the grammar, intermediate and the high schools of this city are allowed to purchase ticket books at the rate of 2½ cents a ticket with each ticket good for one ride. It seems that of all the classes of students the college group is most needful of any reduction in fare that can be given. The grammar and high school groups attend without any expenditure for tuition whereas the college student must sometimes spend his last cent for tuition.

It is not the purpose of this comment to discourage the use of the above mentioned tickets by grammar, intermediate and high school students but to suggest that the privilege be extended to college students, a group that is in need of and would appreciate such an offer. Possibly if CPS students would present this suggestion to the street car company such a reduction might be secured. At least it would do no harm to present our case. A. L.

The Watch Dog

Today's simile exercise: As much chance as a professor has of thwarting a class-extermination by the CPS pep department. . . . However, we often wondered if the boys knew whether they were celebrating CPS holding Washington to a 14-6 score or whether they were celebrating an excuse to terminate classes. . . . you who marked "yes" to the first part of that statement grab the paper cone hat and sit over in that corner.

One-word definition of. . . . Bob Summers: Smiley. . . . All reports of Leonard Moline striking a gold mine in his back yard are erroneous. . . . One-word definition of Jack Slatter: Bare.

George Nace was once overing his Lincoln high school pride and joy Thursday over CPS halls. . . . just like a Boy Scout showing off his Tenderfoot badge. . . . The master minds of the Thetas have devised a way to partially thwart their pledges' sneak. . . . Several complaints have been forwarded to Professor Slater on "Hiya" Tollefson's hand-holding during the showing of biology slides. . . . Tollefson's only explanation was that it was a life-long habit of his to grab someone's hand at the movies.

Fred Stockbridge is still writing to those girls in England. . . . no wonder Uncle Sam and John Bull are at strained relations. . . . That afore-mentioned encounter of two weeks ago between Bill Hipple and Jack Green forced the Broadmoor apartment management to re-cover the entire second floor hallway with a new carpet. . . .
